

MALACHI TALABI

Inspirational speaker | 2011 UK & Ireland Public Speaking Champion

Speech Coaching with Malachi - FAQs

Dear Contestant,

Thank you for your interest in hiring me as your coach for your contest journey.

My own journey began in July 2010 when I joined Croydon Communicators Toastmasters group. In my first three months, I won the Humorous Speech competition at club and area level with a speech entitled, "The Laws of the Playground".

This gave me a taste for speech contests and six months later in May 2011, I was honoured to be crowned the UK and Ireland public speaking champion and to represent District 71 in Las Vegas at the world semi-finals, where I came in at third place, out of a possible 30,000+ worldwide contestants.

Since then, I have gone on to become an author, a certified World Class Speaking Coach (under Craig Valentine, 1999 World Champion of Public Speaking), and I now deliver workshops and keynotes inside and outside of Toastmasters, as well as coach speech contestants and keynote speakers.

I love to learn and grow and to share my knowledge in the process, which is why I enjoy coaching contestants on a one-to-one level. Getting a coach is a critical part of becoming a champion – especially in a contest!

If you would like to hire me as your contest coach, please read the Frequently Asked Questions below and then send me an email as early as possible. My team and I will get back to you within 24 hours.

Many thanks,

Malachi

Booking Malachi for speech coaching - FAQs

Is there a charge for your speech coaching?

No, there is no charge for contest coaching – it's absolutely free of charge. However, we do recommend that you invest in Malachi's speaking resources and go through them first – this makes it easier for you to get the most out of the coaching experience.

How many hours will you work with me?

We can agree the time beforehand, but as a guideline, it usually takes at least three to four one-hour coaching sessions to hone a contest speech.

I've just won my club contest, will you coach me?

Unfortunately due to time constraints, Malachi is only available to coach those who have won their Division contest and are on the journey to District or International level competition. For everyone else, we recommend that you invest in Malachi's speaking resources and use them to construct and improve your speech.

How does the coaching work – do we meet face-to-face?

No, the coaching is done remotely via Skype (preferably) or over the telephone.

What if I just want you to look at my script?

This is fine where Malachi's schedule permits. However, we do advise that you also send a video with your script as there is often a difference between a written speech and a delivered speech.

Will I win the contest if I work with you?

We cannot guarantee your victory as a contestant, but what we can guarantee is your growth as a speaker.

Will you work solely with me?

Malachi will not enter into any exclusive coaching arrangements with any speech contestant and reserves the right to assist as many or as few qualifying contestants as time permits. However, full confidentiality will be maintained at all times and no aspects of one contestant's speech or delivery will be discussed with another during the coaching period.

MALACHI TALABI

Inspirational speaker | 2011 UK & Ireland Public Speaking Champion

Please note: Due to time constraints, Malachi's free contest coaching is only available to a maximum of two contestants at any given time. To avoid disappointment, please contact Malachi as early as possible, including full details of your Toastmasters journey so far and where you are with your speech.

Click here to request Malachi as your coach